Angus Vinden is a second generation vigneron in the Hunter Valley. Since taking over in 2015, Angus has maintained the original family label, Vinden Wines, which possesses a traditional Hunter style, as well as producing his offshoot label allowing a more experimental approach - The Vinden Headcase - balancing tradition and innovation.

All of the wines are handcrafted onsite at the winery using minimal intervention from hand-picked grapes. The farming is all organic, the yeasts are native, and all wines are vegan.

2021 The Vinden Headcase Semillon

an atypical but very approachable Hunter semillon - cloudy ferment, old oak, concrete egg, lees aging

2021 The Vinden Headcase Pokolbin Blanc

musky, aromatic white blend centered around some fleshy gewurztraminer, with some more traditional semillon and verdelho thrown in for good measure

2021 The Vinden Headcase Shiraz Nouveau

not your average Hunter Valley Shiraz - this is a 'nouveau' style of red...light, frisky Shiraz grown on the Vinden Estate

2021 The Vinden Headcase Charmless Man

Vinden's version of a juicy, loveable red that shows well with a slight chill - a crowd favorite at Vinden Estate
